C1.2. DEFINITIONS

C1.2.1. Code of Federal Regulation (CFR). An annual codification of the general and permanent rules published in the Federal Register by Federal Agencies. The CFR is divided into 50 titles; Title 32 contains DoD issuances.

C1.2.2. DoD Components. The Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD), the Military Departments, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Unified Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, and the DoD Field Activities.

C1.2.3. DoD Directive. A broad DoD policy document containing what is required by legislation, the President, or the Secretary of Defense to initiate, govern, or regulate actions or conduct by the DoD Components within their specific areas of responsibilities. DoD Directives establish or describe policy, programs, and organizations; define missions; provide authority; and assign responsibilities.

C1.2.4. DoD Directive-type Memorandum. A memorandum issued by the Secretary of Defense, Deputy Secretary of Defense, or OSD Principal Staff Assistants (PSAs) that, because of time constraints, cannot be published in the DoD Directives System. Directive-type memorandums signed by the PSAs are procedural in nature. They implement policy documents, such as DoD Directives, Federal laws, and Executive orders. Directive-type memorandums signed by the Secretary or Deputy Secretary of Defense are policy-making documents. A directive-type memorandum shall be converted into a DoD Directive or Instruction within 90 days, unless the subject is classified with limited distribution or is material of limited or temporary relevance.

C1.2.5. DoD Directives System. The single, uniform system of DoD issuances and directive-type memorandums used to convey DoD policies, responsibilities, and procedures. It provides for the orderly processing, approval, publication, distribution, internal review, and records management of DoD Directives, DoD Instructions, and DoD Publications, and changes thereto. The DoD Directives System also includes the OSD Federal Register system.

C1.2.6. DoD Instruction. A DoD issuance that implements the policy, or prescribes the manner or a specific plan or action for carrying out the policy, operating a program or activity, and assigning responsibilities.

C1.2.7. DoD Issuance. DoD Directives, DoD Instructions, DoD publications, and their changes.

C1.2.8. DoD Publication. DoD issuances that include Catalogs, Directories, Guides, Handbooks, Indexes, Inventories, Lists, Manuals, Modules, Pamphlets, Plans, Regulations, and Standards that implement or supplement DoD Directives or DoD Instructions by providing uniform procedures for management or operational systems and disseminating administrative information.

C1.2.9. Defense Technical Information Center (DTIC) Accession Number. A unique number assigned to documents by DTIC. The DTIC accession number should be used by authorized registered users to order a DoD issuance from DTIC.

C1.2.10. National Technical Information Service (NTIS) Accession Number. A unique number assigned to documents by NTIS. The NTIS accession number should be used to order a DoD issuance from NTIS.

C1.2.11. Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD). The principal staff element of the Secretary of Defense in the exercise of policy development, planning, resource management, fiscal and program evaluation, and oversight responsibilities. The OSD Components include the immediate offices of the Secretary and Deputy Secretary of Defense, the OSD Principal Staff Assistants, and such other staff offices as the Secretary establishes to assist in carrying out his assigned responsibilities.

C1.2.12. OSD Principal Staff Assistants. The Under Secretaries of Defense (USDs), the Director of Defense Research and Engineering (DDR&E), the Assistant Secretaries of Defense (ASDs), the Director of Operational Test and Evaluation (DOT&E), the General Counsel of the Department of Defense (GC, DoD), the Inspector General of the Department of Defense (IG, DoD), the Assistants to the Secretary of Defense (ATSDs), and the OSD Directors or equivalents who report directly to the Secretary or Deputy Secretary of Defense.
